CAUTION - EXTERNAL:*Re: MOTION FOR LEAVE TO AMEND COMPLAINT TO ADD PARTY

Dear Judge Tarnofsky,

I am writing to respectfully request the Court's permission to amend the complaint in the above-referenced case to add a party, namely, Ira Todd Klein, who is the husband of the current plaintiff, Jennifer Klein.

As the case has developed, it has become clear that the issues in dispute directly affect both Jennifer Klein and Ira Klein, particularly given that they share the same AT&T account and Mr. Klein is responsible for the payment of the account charges from his personal bank account. Mr. Klein's involvement has been substantial, as he has been the primary point of contact with AT&T, has made the payments in question, and has been directly impacted by the alleged violations of law.

In light of these facts, adding Mr. Klein as a plaintiff will provide a more comprehensive representation of the interests involved and will allow for a more efficient resolution of the matter. This amendment will not alter the nature of the current claims but will enhance the Court's understanding of the factual context within which these claims arise.

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a), I kindly request the Court's leave to file an amended complaint reflecting this change. I believe that this amendment will serve the interests of justice and will not unduly prejudice the Defendant, as it seeks to clarify and assert the interests of all affected parties.

Attached to this letter is a proposed amended complaint for the Court's consideration. Should the Court require any additional information or documentation in support of this motion, I am prepared to provide it promptly.

I appreciate the Court's time and consideration of this request and apologize for any inconvenience this modification may necessitate.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Jennifer Klein
